AN ENGLISH PROTEST AGAINST MIRA-MON'S CAUSE.—It appears by a correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune, writing from Vera Croz, that Captain Oldham had written to Miramon, protesting strongly against the wanton and in-human destruction of English property distant counties can have their rolls to take and innocent life.

FRANCE. The Brussels Nord had been seized in Paris for publishing Cardinal Antonelli's reply to M. Thouvenel, contrary to etiquette. The Independance Belge professes to have good reasons for believing that France will ratify the annexation of the Romagna and Tuscany to Piedmont, in view of the late remarkable result.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times writes that there is great wrath in that city against the Pope. It was said that his Holiness had issued another document still stronger than the Encyclical on the Romagna affair. Letters from an ulthat the agitation is so great as to make it doubtful whether even the French army will be able to restrain it much longer It is also stated that the second monitoire, or warning, which immediately precedes excommunication, has been sent to Turin. After a certain interval, the bull casting forth the Sardinian monarch from the communion of the faithful will be issued.

ITALY.

A letter from Turin announces that the Sardinian Parliament will meet on the 12th instant; also, that the King is likely to postpone acceptance of the Romagna for a time, in hopes of removing the Pope's opposition by negotiations. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed everywhere upon the announcement of the Central Italian vote; and the King contemplated making a visit to the newly added pro-
